"A Highlander's Love" – written for the event by Fyonn

"A highlander's love" - Fyonn (July 2007)

You kiss a boy and I'll kiss a girl
You feel female I feel male
I'm telling you that we're not about to speak out over your drum
Party in the street party in your houses
I'll ceilidh here will you conga beside me?
77 or 17
You're part of this family whoever you be.

It's a highlander's love for what we used to be
Highlander's love for our new family
Highlander's love for our diverse country
Highlander's love for you not just for me

You are black and I am white
I'm colour blind so we'll party all night
Though I pray to God and you pray to Allah
We've both earned our respect
Party in the streets party in your houses
I'll ceilidh here will you conga beside me?
77 or 17
You're part of the Highlands
Whoever you be

It's a highlander's love for what we used to be
Highlander's love for our new family
Highlander's love for our diverse country
Highlander's love for you not just for me

It's a highlander's love for what we used to be
Highlander's love for our new family
Highlander's love for our diverse country
Highlander's love for you not just for me
